

Integrating Biodiversity into Investment Decisions

Bonn, Germany

29th May 13:15

AGENDA

Objective:

- To communicate and seek feedback on emerging initiatives linking biodiversity and shareholder value including the UNEP FI work stream on biodiversity and ecosystem services
- To demonstrate the importance of engaging the finance sector in the objectives of the Convention on Biological Diversity
- To identify key barriers and actions to achieving this

Moderator: Paul Clements-Hunt, UNEP Finance Initiative

Time	Topic	Speaker
13:15	Setting the Scene: UNEP FI's progress since CBD COP8	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sylvie Lemmet, Director, Division of Trade, Industry & Economics, UNEP
13:30	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The Potsdam Initiative: reviewing the cost of policy inaction • Biodiversity & Ecosystem Services – Implications for the financial sector • The Natural Value Initiative – measuring company performance • Managing a company's impact and dependence on ecosystem services – the Corporate Ecosystem Services Review 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Leon Braat, Alterra, Wageningen University • Richard Burrett, ABN AMRO • Annelisa Grigg, Fauna & Flora International • Craig Hanson, World Resources Institute
14:20	Discussion with Audience
14:50	Wrap Up & Concluding Remarks	