

Ole Beier Sorensen
Chief of Department, Research & Strategy
ATP

Ole Beier Sorensen is Chief of Research with the Danish pension fund ATP. Mr. Beier is heading ATP's activities on policy analysis and design covering a broad range of issues related to pension management. He is currently heading ATP's ongoing efforts to refine its policies on climate change and upgrade the integration of climate risk and opportunity into its day to day investment practices. ATP is a € 52 billion statutory pension fund forming part of the basic pension cover in Denmark. Last December ATP made a commitment to commit 1 billion € into a fund targeting climate relevant-investments in emerging economies.
